KO OLINA BEACH CLUB

Background:

Just steps from the ocean on the island of O'ahu, Marriott Ko Olina Beach Club, surrounded by clear blue waters and a picturesque lagoon. The villa resort is nestled within a beautifully landscaped, gated community offering stunning beach, mountain or resort views. Soak up the sun by one of three outdoor pools, work out in state-of-the-art fitness center or indulge in a treatment at the resort's tranquil on-site spa. Make sure to sample the tasty cuisine at the restaurants before returning to a well-appointed guestroom or villa vacation rental.

Highlights:

- Ko Olina's water use decreased 86,227 gallons from 2023 to 2024
- Rain sensors installed on irrigation watering stations
- Storm drain signage to encourage people to not dispose of anything down the drains
- Installation of lanai door sensors. When lanai doors open, air conditioning is automatically turned off until lanai doors have been re-closed
- Signage in rooms to encourage guests to conserve water and energy
- Replacing of LED lighting instead of halogen lighting in our large Koi pond
- Replacing LED lights for incandescent and halogen lighting in public areas
- Replacing outdated pool heaters with 98% energy efficient pool heaters
- Replacing pump motors with more-efficient, Variable Frequency Drive motors
- Using electric landscaping equipment in lieu of gas-powered

Lei Making – The Activities Team host lei making workshops with the Owners and Guests. A lei expresses love, appreciation, and hospitality, making it a cherished gift for special occasions. In essence, it is a symbol of Aloha. It's also a simple yet powerful gesture that brings people together and fosters unity and respect.

The Samoan-based Fia Fia Luau features Fire Knife Dancing, Hula Dance, and a Hawaiian Feast every Tuesday—taking guests on the journey through the South Pacific. With no show the same, it is always a good look at Polynesian culture.
