HILO COFFEE MILL

Background:

Established in 2001, Hilo Coffee Mill is a farm, mill, and casual cafe that nestles in 24 verdant acres of Mountain View on Hawai'i Island. This solar-powered farm-to-table treasure has added East Hawai'i to the roster of best coffee-growing regions worldwide.

Highlights:

- One of the first participants in Recycle Hawai'i
- Passes on sustainability mana'ō unique to a rainforest setting in tour teachings
- New owner Seth Breeding is reaching out via the Hawai'i Small Business Network for local small business collaborations
- Solar-paneled lanai hosts regular Community Yard Sales to save thrilled bargain-seekers from burning up fuel on the famously spread-out roads
- Carousel art project that community can participate in with carving the horses
- Live local music Saturdays 9-2 pm
