CORAD RABLES
MADE IN HAWAII WITH ALOHA

Background:

Coradorables is proud to be Hawai'i's first product-based certified B Corporation, dedicated to sustainability and ethical practices. Their heirloom-quality matching resort wear is made locally in Hawai'i, supporting over 15 women-led businesses and ensuring a clean supply chain. By prioritizing eco-friendly materials and production methods, they create beautiful pieces for families globally while minimizing our environmental impact and fostering community collaboration.

Highlights

- Exceptional B Corporation Status: In 2023, Coradorables became Hawai'i's first product-based certified B Corporation, achieving an outstanding transparency score of 107.7, placing them in the top 10% of B Corps worldwide. With only 7,000 certified B Corps globally and an average score of 80, their commitment to high social and environmental performance reflects dedication to transparency and sustainability in every aspect of the business.
- Sustainable Materials: Prioritizing the use of eco-friendly fabrics, such as organic cotton and recycled materials, ensuring products are both beautiful and environmentally conscious.
- Local Production: All resort wear is designed and manufactured in Hawai'i, significantly reducing transportation emissions and supporting the local economy.
- Energy Efficiency: Source energy from renewable sources and utilize energy-efficient machinery in production facilities to reduce the carbon footprint.
- Zero Waste Practices: Coradorables implements a zero-waste approach by repurposing fabric scraps and producing items that maximize material efficiency, diverting waste from landfills.
- Recycling Initiatives: Actively engage in recycling programs for packaging and production materials, ensuring that waste is minimized and materials are reused whenever possible.
- Community Engagement: Commitment to sustainability extends beyond products; hosting workshops, speaking nationally and collaborating with national organizations to educate various communities on sustainable practices globally.
- Logistics Optimization: Optimizing supply chain to minimize transportation emissions by sourcing materials locally and managing efficient delivery systems.
- Certifications and Transparency: As a certified B Corporation, certified WBENC woman owned and certified Disability IN, they continuously assess social and environmental impact, striving for transparency in processes and materials.
- Carbon Offsetting: Investing in carbon offset programs, contributing to reforestation and clean energy projects to mitigate environmental impact further.
- Investment in Supima Cotton: Coradorables proudly invests in Supima cotton, a premium, trademarked cotton variety grown exclusively in the USA. Comprising only 3% of the world's cotton production, Supima offers superior softness, strength, and color retention, making it an ideal choice for athleisure collection. By sourcing this exceptional material, they not only support domestic agriculture but also ensure that products meet the highest standards of quality and sustainability, providing customers with luxurious, long-lasting apparel.

- National Retail Federation Sustainability Council: As an active member of the National Retail Federation Sustainability Council, they collaborate with industry leaders to promote sustainable practices and develop solutions that address environmental challenges in retail on a national scale.
- United Nations Global Compact Business Membership: Since 2020, Coradorables has proudly been a member of The United Nations Global Compact, committing to align business strategies with universal principles on human rights, labor, environment, and anti-corruption. In April, they were honored to be invited to attend an official United Nations meeting in New York by Sanda Ojiambo, CEO of the United Nations Global Compact.
- PBN's 2024 Power Leader Award: Received PBN's 2024 Power Leader Award in recognition of exemplary efforts in advancing sustainability within operations and community initiatives.
- Small Business Retail Champion: Coradorables was recognized as a 2024 Small Business Retail Champion by The National Retail Federation for advocacy and dedication to supporting small businesses on Capitol Hill, amplifying the voices of entrepreneurs nationwide.
- Women Who Mean Business: In recognition of impactful leadership, Cora Spearman was named one of 2020's Women Who Mean Business, celebrating women who are making significant strides in their industries and inspiring others.
- Partnership with Sony Global: In 2025, Coradorables Sustainable Corporation onboarded as an official sustainable vendor and partner for Sony Global, the first made in Hawai'i business to ever do so, collaborating across various sectors to support Sony's commitment to achieving net-zero emissions by 2030.
- Water Conservation: Manufacturing partners employ water-efficient processes to minimize water use during production, emphasizing conservation and sustainability.
- Cora Spearman was most recently (May 2025) a panelist at the Justice For All Conference in NYC.
- They work with Creative Lab Industries, part of DBEDT, as a sustainable exporter with a clean supply chain to Japan and Canada, and soon to Shanghai, Hong Kong, and Europe. In addition to made-in-Hawai'i garments, they are also creators of intellectual property with cartoon characters and documentary series that focus on sustainability and cultural exchange.
