Little Plum, Lady Elaine, and Uncle Paul's Corner Store

Background:

Little Plum, Lady Elaine, and Uncle Paul's Corner Store have a team of chefs, beverage professionals, creatives, lawyers, and restaurateurs, with extensive experience working with large brands and building new ventures both locally and nationally.

While their accomplishments and award-winning service have been recognized, they are a team that believes in fostering connections and finds fulfillment in bringing joy to others. With a passion for hospitality, they have a deep love for food, beverages, service, and for creating concepts that inspire a sense of welcome and ownership. They are committed to investing in their team, guests, community, and vendors. They aspire to impact as many lives as possible by doing what they love, in a way that is sustainable and beneficial to the industry. They believe that by prioritizing good, they can all achieve success.

Highlights:

- Using local products in dishes.
- Selling local value-added products and goods.
- Highlighting farmer and producer relations.
- Electrification of cooking equipment.
- Faucet aerators and low maintenance potted plants for water management.
